

Senator Ronald Ramsey, Sr.

Senate District 43

State Senator Ronald Ramsey, Sr., a Democrat, was first elected to the Georgia Senate from the 43rd District in 2006. He represents citizens in portions of Dekalb and Rockdale counties.

Sen. Ramsey serves on a number of influential committees, including his position as secretary of the Urban Affairs Committee and as a member of the Education and Youth, Insurance and Labor, Special Judiciary and State and Local Government committees.

Sen. Ramsey has a successful career as a federal government investigator and attorney. He also served as a municipal court judge in Stone Mountain for seven consecutive terms. In 1992, Sen. Ramsey earned his J.D. after first graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in political science in 1981.

Sen. Ramsey lives in Decatur with his wife Doris and their two children, Ronald, Jr. and Christyn.

January 2009